DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 27, 28 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Haas (4,221,206). See col. 6, line 24 to col. 7, line 21, col. 2, lines 31-40 and claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim(s) 29 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haas in view of Baek. Haas discloses all of the limitations of the claim(s) except for the vehicle having an implement. Baek discloses the presence of an implement. See col. 13, lines 15-67. Hence, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to modify the system of Haas to include the implement of Baek for the purpose of spraying.

Claim(s) 30 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haas in view of Harada et al. (6,081,761). Haas discloses all of the limitations of the claim(s) except for the processor disrupts the operation of the vehicle by reducing the maximum vehicle speed. Harada et al. discloses the presence of a processor disrupts the operation of the vehicle by reducing the maximum vehicle speed. See col. 11, line 66 to col. 12, line 16. Hence, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to modify the system of Haas to include the processor disrupts the operation of the vehicle by reducing the maximum vehicle speed of Harada et al. for the purpose of increased safety.
